The Centennial Celebration Dinner

To celebrate the 100th year of scouting, the Chinese Scouters Association and the Central Ontario Administrative Office co-organized the Centennial Celebration Dinner on November 30, 2007 (Friday) at the Ruby Chinese Restaurant, Scarborough, Ontario. Mr. Herman Hui, Chairman of the World Scout Committee, was invited as the keynote speaker.

Scouting was founded by Lord Baden-Powell in 1907 in U.K. and it was 100 years in 2007. It was with the aim to fulfill the mission of the Association in uniting local Chinese scout groups, deepening the relation with Scouts Canada, strengthening the connection and cooperation with local and overseas scout groups and organizations and providing community services that the Chinese Scouters Association hosted the celebration dinner. There were around three hundred participants, including representatives of Scouts Canada, scouters, scouts, parents, friends and renowned people of the community. They were entertained with lion dance, Chinese cultural dances and lucky draw. The Hong Kong “old” scouts led singing of scout campfire songs, adding flavor to the fun-filled evening.
